COLWICK HALL HOTEL

“Colwick Hall
Hotel, a unique venue, creating

Colwick Hall is the ancestral home of Lord Byron and is one of the most beautiful wedding venues in the Nottingham area. The country house mansion lies in over 60 acres of charming woodland, rolling countryside and lake.

Our dedicated, friendly 'Wedding Planning Service' will guide you through the arrangements leading up to your big day. We aim to be especially responsive while also providing support and inspiration.

Colwick Hall is licensed for civil marriage ceremonies. The chic décor creates a sumptuous yet natural backdrop to your own colour scheme for the day.

Whether you are planning an intimate wedding breakfast or an all-singing, all-dancing party of a lifetime, we have a variety of rooms, suites and a marquee to ensure you get the perfect venue for your wedding reception.

Upon arrival you will be greeted in our reception, walking over the original stone floors into the splendour of our Champagne Lounge (below) where your Guests will enjoy drinks and canapés.

The Lounge has it's own terrace which overlooks the lake.

The Hotel is set in stunning surroundings allowing plenty of opportunities for some fantastic photographs.

“Perfect suites
for every occasion...”

The Lakeside Pavilion

Licensed for Civil Ceremonies. This grand marquee is the ideal venue to accommodate 120 - 500 guests. Set alongside the lake overlooking the Country Park, this makes for the most romantic setting. The Lakeside Pavilion has its own garden area, ideal for photographs, private bar, dance floor and stage.

The Pavilion can also accommodate Bands, Discos and any other type of entertainment you may have planned.

1776 The Grand Ballroom

Licensed for Civil Ceremonies for up to 90 people, 1776 The Grand Ballroom is a breath-taking room with a handpainted ceiling resting on four majestic pillars.

DeColwyck & John Carr Suite

Situated on the East Wing of the Manor, the DeColwyck is the perfect venue for a smaller wedding reception, with lined linen walls and views of the landscaped gardens. The suite is also licensed for Civil Ceremonies for up to 30 people.

The doors to the suite open onto the fabulous gardens ideal for the perfect wedding photographs.

George Stubbs

A beautiful private room set on the first floor overlooking the gardens and lake. Ideal for your intimate reception of up to 12 people.

Georgetown Restaurant

Relax to the waltzes of Chopin and Mozart whilst perusing our varied colonial Malaysian menu which brings together the exquisite cuisines of Malaysian Malay, Mandarin Chinese and Tamil Indians, all under one roof.

Proudly displaying the original ceilings, all dishes are served in our regal house style with crystal cut glass and very fine bone china in a colonial ballroom setting.

We would be delighted to show you around - please call us to arrange a convenient appointment.

With all the luxuries you would expect in a fine Country House Hotel, the gorgeous bedrooms represent the very best of 'New Traditional' ... and a Honeymoon Suite to die for!

Antique furniture, pure goose feather and down duvets, great art and stunning bathrooms in the splendid Grade II listed building belie the refreshingly unstuffy atmosphere.

Our Signature, Lord Byron bedroom is our principal suite. This exquisite room has a stunning bathroom with a central bath. It also has a large sitting area, huge plasma TV, antique furniture and a fabulous view over looking the fountain, gardens and racecourse.

Our Superior Bedrooms are luxurious to say the least. Boasting palatial designs and rich decorations, original fireplaces together with period furniture, exquisite bathrooms, many with central baths and fittings throughout. They enjoy breathtaking views of the lake, racecourse or grounds.

Executive Bedrooms enjoy many original features of this period building. They are contemporary in style and have all the latest technology, including plasma TVs and wireless internet access.

We are delighted to advise that marriage ceremonies in the presence of a Superintendent Registrar and Registrar, may take place in 1776 The Grand Ballroom for up to 90 guests and in the Lakeside Pavilion for up to 350 guests.

Once you have made provisional marriage ceremony arrangements with us, you will need to contact:

The Register Office
50 Shakespeare Street
Nottingham
NG1 4FP

Tel: 01159475665
office.register@nottinghamcity.gov.uk

Should you wish to have music within the licensed room, either before, during or immediately after the ceremony, the Registrar must be advised of this by the Bride and Groom in advance. We are happy to recommend suitable musicians, including harpists and string quartets.

Individual meetings with the Registrar, for both the Bride and Groom, will take place prior to the Ceremony in a private room close by.

This best describes our approach to cooking. Our food is freshly prepared on the premises with great technical skill. Our Head Chef would be delighted to interpret or inspire your menu choice personally.

Colwick Hall Hotel has a range of suites that can cater for your reception party whatever the size.

We can serve up to 500 people in the Lakeside Pavilion and up to 90 people in 1776 The Grand Ballroom.

Knowing every wedding is different, our prices have been designed to offer flexibility and value. Please refer to the inserts for detailed information. Prices for smaller events are available upon request.

Our complementary wedding planning service will interpret your wishes, co-ordinate your event and guide you through the organisation, fabulous cuisine and order of the day, providing support and inspiration.

Whether your wedding reception is a small intimate occasion or a large traditional gathering, we have the experience in organising traditional ceremonies and receptions through to modern themed occasions.

We would be delighted to host your Civil Partnership ceremony and we understand that as every couple is unique, so is every ceremony.

We offer various options in any of our private rooms for your ceremony to ensure it is a truly memorable occasion for you both.

Please speak to our dedicated wedding co-ordinator about your requirements.

At Colwick Hall, we understand that getting married is extremely important to you personally and financially. Our Wedding Planners will help you work to many different levels of budget. We do ask that all receptions meet the minimum numbers for the various venues and that each guest has the minimum of the Wentworth menu and the Silver drinks package during the day and each evening guest must be catered for with the minimum of Buffet One. All room hire charges are applicable.
